

JUST AS EXPECTED, SALT LAKE LOST

Home Crowd Got One Run Against Seattle's Eight.

MR. STOPHER FELL AGAIN.

He Was Rumped for Eleven Hits—
Some Wild Throws Made—Strikers
There This Afternoon.

Just as local fans expected, Salt Lake was beaten again by Seattle yesterday afternoon. It may be different this afternoon, as the strikers are scheduled to reach Seattle and take part in the game. Mr. Stophor was the victim thrown to the mercy of the Seattle crowd, and they handled him without gloves. He was pumpeled for 11 nice, safe hits and the wonder is the locals were not given another large goose egg. Stophor was not given good support, but the result might have been just the same anyhow. Anderson and Wood made wild throws while home runs were made by all who assisted the home team to lose. But it may be all different this afternoon when our crick players arrive on the field of battle. McCarthy pitched a good game for Seattle, and his support was almost faultless. The attendance was more than 1,100. The summary follows:

SEATTLE	A. B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	E.
Hulen, 2b.	4	0	1	5	3	1
McNichols, 3b.	4	0	1	5	3	1
Davis, 1b.	4	0	1	5	3	1
Drennon, c.	4	0	1	5	3	1
Freeman, 1b.	4	0	1	5	3	1
McGilligan, ss.	4	0	1	5	3	1
Stanley, c.	4	0	1	5	3	1
McCarthy, p.	4	0	1	5	3	1
Totals.	36	0	8	27	15	1

SALT LAKE

	A. B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	E.
Weed, 2b.	4	0	1	5	3	1
Mosher, 1. f.	4	0	1	5	3	0
Davis, 1b.	4	1	1	12	0	0
Plannson, c.	4	0	1	1	1	2
Plannson, ss.	3	0	0	1	2	0
Brookhous, 3b.	3	0	0	0	1	1
Curtis, c. f.	2	0	1	3	0	0
Hogan, 1. f.	3	0	0	0	0	0
Stopher, p.	3	0	0	0	7	1
Totals.	30	1	5	24	14	5
Score by innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
U. S. 1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

HOW THEY STAND.

Pacific National League

Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Los Angeles	30	29
San Francisco	28	31
Seattle	27	32
Portland	26	33
San Diego	25	34
San Jose	24	35
San Bernardino	23	36
San Luis Obispo	22	37
San Mateo	21	38
San Francisco	20	39
Salt Lake	19	40

TODAY'S GAMES.

Los Angeles at Spokane.
San Francisco at Butte.
Seattle at Tacoma.
Salt Lake at Seattle.

American League

Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Boston	30	29
Philadelphia	28	31
St. Louis	27	32
Detroit	26	33
New York	25	34
Baltimore	24	35
Chicago	23	36
Washington	22	37
Cleveland	21	38
Pittsburgh	20	39
Philadelphia	19	40

National League

Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Pittsburgh	30	29
Chicago	28	31
New York	27	32
Baltimore	26	33
St. Louis	25	34
Cincinnati	24	35
Boston	23	36
Philadelphia	22	37
Cleveland	21	38
Pittsburgh	20	39
Philadelphia	19	40

Western League

Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Colorado Springs	30	29
San Francisco	28	31
Sacramento	27	32
Portland	26	33
San Diego	25	34
San Jose	24	35
San Bernardino	23	36
San Luis Obispo	22	37
San Mateo	21	38
San Francisco	20	39
Salt Lake	19	40

Pacific Coast League

Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Los Angeles	30	29
San Francisco	28	31
Sacramento	27	32
Portland	26	33
San Diego	25	34
San Jose	24	35
San Bernardino	23	36
San Luis Obispo	22	37
San Mateo	21	38
San Francisco	20	39
Salt Lake	19	40

SALE OF SEATS BEGUN.

Considerable interest in McCarthy-Daily Fight Monday Night.

There is a great deal of interest in the bout between Jerry McCarthy and "Chicago" Jack Daily scheduled for Monday evening at the Grand theater. Large crowds of ring followers have been watching the pair train every afternoon, and the interest is equally keen in the outcome. Both men are in fine shape now and will do little more than show their skill in the ring.

The sale of seats began yesterday afternoon at the Grand theater box office.

EVENTS AT CLEVELAND.

Three Hot Favorites Were Badly Beaten Yesterday.

Cleveland, O., July 30.—Handbills were run much more hotly than on the previous days. The crowd watching the defeat of three favorites was large.

2:11 p.m. race, purse $1,000—Mill William won the second and third heats in 2:17 1/2 and 2:24. Pauline C won the first heat in 2:17.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, pushing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that swells but vital organs become diseased.

Mr. D. Kaib, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state of health for some time. I took Kodol Dyspeptic Cure for about four months and it cured me."

Kodol Digests What You Eat

and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.

Bottles only, $1.00. Sold by 24 times the trial and which costs for 30c.

Prepared by E. C. DODD & CO., CHICAGO.

Sold by All Druggists.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES PROMPTLY CURED

A Sample Bottle Sent FREE by Mail.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, cures all troubles of the kidney, bladder and uric acid troubles, rheumatism and pain in the back. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad urine, or following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day and get up many times in the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cure of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver, bladder or uric acid trouble you will find it just the remedy you need. If you need a medicine you should have the best the world has to offer. In fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, and a book that tells all about it and its great cures, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this advertisement.

2:47 p.m. race, purse $1,000—Jay McGree won the second heat in 2:17 1/2. Gray Gem, Adams, Jr., and Frank Lane, Jr., and Nicolette and Judge Green also started.

Free for all race, purse $1,000—Dan R. Gelineau, King and Conely also started.

2:50 p.m. race, purse $1,000—The Roman won the first heat in 2:17 1/2. Dan T. Dan Wilkes, A. J. D. and Silver Sign also started.

2:51 p.m. race, purse $1,000—Robinson won the first and third heats in 2:17 1/2. Monroe won the second heat in 2:17 1/2. Lucy Lee, Parthia, Dark Secret and Mand Carline also started.

Bike Races Tonight.

The feature of this evening's bike races at the Casino will probably be the five-mile motor race. All the machines on the track will be pressed into service and the race ought to be for thrills. A two-mile open will bring out all the professional and the amateurs have another five-mile trial.

JEFF A STRONG FAVORITE.

Odds of Two to One Offered on Fight With Corbett.

New York, July 30.—With the date of the Corbett-Jeffries heavyweight championship battle less than one month away, the principals are making their last preparations for the contest. That Corbett will win is the opinion of many who will count a great deal in the coming encounter both Jeffries and Corbett.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

Jeffries, however, in the best of health, but there is no doubt he will feel the effects of rapidly running his weight.

Many believe that Jeffries does not have to take off much weight, but this impression is erroneous. While the champion is not coming to the ring with the intention of fighting, the required weight according to the conditions of the match, he must dispose of all his surplus weight.

Jeffries has been in the ring for several years, and has been victorious in every fight. He is a strong favorite in the eyes of the betting public.

Corbett is not at all disturbed over the fact that the champion is a decisive favorite in the betting.

"It is in the time that I have been the under dog in the betting," says Corbett. "When I fought Sullivan, it was an old prize that I won. I won't let a defeated Sullivan, and those men who backed him wondered how they had overlooked me."

Corbett continues his strenuous outdoor life at Alameda, and those who have had the pleasure of seeing him say that he appears bigger and stronger than ever before. Instead of violent work, Corbett has gone to the gymnasium, and has been in the best of health.

BIG CROWD AT SAUCER TRACK

Bike Riders Do Speedy Work for Woodmen of the World.

INTERESTING FIELD SPORTS.

Amateurs Did Some Thrilling Riding—
Motor Aced Badly—Winners
In Field Events.

Local Woodmen of the World practically owned the Salt Palace yesterday afternoon and last night, and to say that they had a rattling good time is only half expressing it. The Salt Palace grounds simply swarmed with Woodmen, and it is estimated that more than 3,000 were present. They were given plenty of amusement and then some, and some more yet. They had a ball game, saw the looping loop, saw a fine program of bike races, participated in field sports and danced until they were tired.

I. H. Davidson had charge of the field sports. The events and winners thereof were as follows:

Boys' 50-yard race—Prizes divided between Frank Myer and Arnold Wall, who tied on twirls.

Girls' 50-yard race—Edith Heath first, Ethel Snell second.